Dear Jessica,

Many thanks for your hard and worthwhile work producing a very professional marine guide for captain's, contractors, owners and all connected to the yachting world.

As a long-term customer since the first edition I still find your publication to be the best at reaching valuable customers.

In the current economic climate it is still important to reach out to our customers and let them know we are still supporting them no matter what. Keep up the great service!

Yours sincerely

Matthew Paton (director)
